ADAMS COUNTY MOST FAVORED APPLE REGION, GROWER SAYS

Adams County "has the most favored apple area in the United States," John B. Peters, Gardner R. D., vice president of the Knouse Foods Cooperative, manager of the Mountain Orchards Cooperative of Aspers, and one of the county's leading fruitgrowers, told the Rotary Club at its Rural-Urban Night meeting Monday in the YWCA.

Adams County alone grows more apples than Maryland and New Jersey, 80 per cent as many as West Virginia and one-third as many as Virginia, Peters reported.

While we think of Virginia as the apple state, he said, Pennsylvania now has more trees and during the last two years had greater production than Virginia. "Adams County is the largest producing county in Pennsylvania," he added.

"Despite its tremendous production Adams County processes more apples than it grows because of its greatly developed processing industry," Peters said.

BEST ORCHARD AREA

Adams County's altitude ranges from 500 feet on the plain to 1,400 feet in the mountains and "the apple growing area is best from 600 feet to 1,100 feet. Our fruit belt along the slopes of the South Mountain is on volcanic soil, and has sufficient moisture, and is more frost-free than any other area in the nation. This, of course, is based on a 10-year average, during which period we have fewer losses from drought or freeze than any other apple-growing section.

"Adams County's fruit industry is based on farmer growers. Many of the growers are second, third, fourth generation. (Continued On Page 3)

1,514 Children, Adults X-Rayed

Mrs. Harold Ecker, executive secretary of the Adams County Tuberculosis and Health Society, reported today that 1,514 children and adults received chest x-rays last week while the mobile x-ray unit was stationed in Lincoln Square. Included in the three-day program, Nov. 17, 18 and 19, were children who had shown reactions to the Mantoux skin tests given in the public schools and members of their families.

Results of the x-rays will be reported within the next four weeks, Mrs. Ecker said. Persons whose x-rays indicate need for further attention will be notified, as will their physicians. All persons who were x-rayed will receive cards reporting the results.

LIONS DONATE $140 TO CAMP OF PA. BLIND

Gettysburg Lions Monday evening voted $140 from their charity fund to Beacon Lodge for the blind, a state Lions' project. The meeting was held at the Varsity Diner with 51 present and President S. M. Raffensperger presiding.

Beacon Lodge is located in the mountains of central Pennsylvania, near Lewistown. The local Lions contribute annually to its support. The check for the camp will be presented to the district governor when he pays an official visit to the club on Monday, December 7. The Lions also announced a $15 donation to Muscular Dystrophy.

President Raffensperger announced the next state Lions' convention will be held May 23-25 in Philadelphia and the next international convention will be held in Los Angeles July 7-10 with rooms already at a premium.

December 21 was set as the date for the annual Christmas party of the local club. It will be held at the Cannon Cafeteria with sons and daughters of Lions as guests. The boys and girls committee, headed by Daniel E. Teeter, will be in charge of arrangements. The local club will not meet next Monday.

The guest speaker for the evening was the Rev. Alfred Gotwalt, pastor of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church. He spoke humorously and then presented some serious "thoughts" to the Lions on a variety of topics. He was introduced by Adrian Martin, program chairman.

50 Foreign Hostages Killed At Stanleyville As Belgian Paratroopers Swarm Down

By KENNETH L. WHITING
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Belgian paratroopers swarmed down on Stanleyville today and seized virtual control of the rebel capital, but not before about 50 foreign hostages were killed, including a U.S. missionary doctor, official reports said.

U.S. transport planes flew in the paratroopers, and some of them were shot at and reported damaged.

As the Belgians landed, white Congolese government soldiers attacked Stanleyville. The attacking troops moved quickly to free the rest of 1,613 foreigners held as hostages and marked for slaughter by the regime should their capital be attacked.

DR. CARLSON KILLED

Refugees flown to Leopoldville from Stanleyville said the rebels had killed Dr. Paul Carlson, medical missionary from Rolling Hills, Calif. He had been condemned as a spy, a charge denied by Washington.

(The State Department in Washington said Carlson was among 250 hostages herded by the Congolese rebels into Lu-

COUNCIL OK'S BIDS FOR NEW ROAD GRADER

Gettysburg borough council at a special meeting Monday evening in the engine house gave approval for the Highways Committee to advertise for bids for a new road grader to replace the present 15-year-old machine owned by the town.

Both Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner and Committee Chairman Robert McCoy recommended that council replace the present grader. Their report showed that it is "beginning to give way, with one thing breaking down after another." Their reports also indicated a desire for a hydraulically operated blade on the grader. The present grader has a mechanically operated device to change the blade.

According to the discussion at the council meeting bids will be asked listing a number of alternatives, including both gasoline and diesel engines.

OFFER FROM FIREMEN

Winebrenner reported on a snow loader similar to the one used in Gettysburg being available. He and the highways chairman were directed to view the equipment.

The Gettysburg Fire Department offered council the tractor portion of the old ladder truck owned by the firemen. The firemen's committee reported that all bids for the ladder truck had been rejected and that the firemen wished to donate the truck-tractor of the ladder truck to the borough and would dispose of the ladder portion otherwise. McCoy said that a truck body could be placed on the tractor. The vehicle, he said, would be useful for snow removal and cost of the body would be no more than was spent for truck hire for snow removal last year.

Council accepted the truck tractor and expressed its appreciation to the fire department.

Most of the meeting was devoted to discussion of a proposed Community Antenna Television ordinance which will be voted on at a later meeting by council.

The proposed ordinance would provide a non-exclusive franchise to Bill Warren, Carlisle St. motel operator, and provides numerous regulations for the protection of the borough, including $100,000 to $300,000 insurance to cover any possible injury or damage, prohibiting any interference with any broadcasting reception by local residents, providing a bond for removal of cables, etc., in case the business is abandoned either because it does not prove profitable, or because the license is lifted by the borough for failure to comply with terms of the ordinance.

As originally read, the ordinance forbade transmission of pay-TV over the cables of the Community Antenna service proposed by Warren. After discussion, that portion of the regulations was changed to permit transmission of pay-TV over the cables if pay-TV becomes generally available to the community through other transmission.

Lacked Driver's License; Fled Cops

Gary Lee Geiselman, 24, Abbotstown, arrested by state police early Sunday morning in East Berlin on a charge of turning out the lights of his car to avoid identification pleaded guilty to that charge at a hearing Monday afternoon before Justice of the Peace John Whitman.

Geiselman told the justice he did not have an operator's license and for that reason sought to avoid the state police by driving through alleys and streets of East Berlin with the lights of his vehicle turned off. At the end of the chase, Geiselman abandoned the car and started to run but was nabbed by the officers. He was in stocking feet when caught by police and told the justice he ran out of his shoes. He was held for sentence by the county court December 14.

JURY FAILS TO PLACE BLAME FOR ACCIDENT

Faced with conflicting testimony, a coroner's jury failed Monday afternoon to place blame for the accidental death of Roy F. Boone, 28, Westminster, at an inquest conducted at the courthouse by Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner.

Boone died in the Warner Hospital last Monday morning nine hours after a four-inch section of a fence board pierced his brain when the car in which he was riding went through a barnyard fence on the James Landis property on the Fairfield Station Rd. The accident occurred about 12:25 a.m.

Boone was a passenger in a car operated by Martin L. Harbaugh, 32, Westminster, which was in the act of passing another auto when the latter attempted a left turn into a side road. The right front of Harbaugh's car struck the other machine which was operated by George R. Bucher, 22, Fairfield R. 1.

Bucher testified his turning signals were in operation when he attempted the turn but Harbaugh denied he had any warning that the car ahead of his was contemplating a turn.

The jury's verdict said the six men were "not convinced" by the testimony that Bucher had used his turning signals or that Harbaugh had any warning that the car he was trying to pass intended to turn. Both drivers have been charged with motor code violations by state police. Harbaugh has been charged with attempting to pass at an intersection and Bucher with attempting a turn when it could not be made in safety. Bucher testified he was not aware a car was back of him when he tried to turn.

SEE FIVE PICTURES

The first witness was Robert Ziegler, Gettysburg photographer, who showed five pictures of the scene and the damaged auto with a section of the windshield in front of Boone's seat knocked out by impact with the fence.

Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, Warner Hospital surgeon, said there was marked damage to Boone's brain by the piece of wood and by a portion of the skull which was driven into the brain by the wooden stake that entered through the left forehead. The surgeon said Harbaugh was not intoxicated but admitted having several beers.

TWO LABORERS FOUND DEAD OF MONOXIDE

Two employees of the William B. Wilson farm in Quaker Valley, Biglerville R. 1, and their dog, were found dead of carbon monoxide poisoning this morning.

The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, put the time of death at about 11:30 Monday night and said the dog had apparently been attempting to escape from the concrete block work camp building when its death occurred.

The two, Julio Enrique Casiano, 22, and Eugenio Quinones Segarra, 30, were the only residents of the work camp at present, other Puerto Rican laborers who had resided there during the season having left at the end of the season.

BLAME GAS BURNER

Dr. Crist and State Policeman Bernard Yanetti, the investigating officer from the state police believe the carbon monoxide gas which caused the death may have developed from a gas burner used to heat the structure.

The death was discovered this morning by Mr. Wilson, who when the two men were not about at their accustomed time went to the two-room cabin and found the bodies.

Both men were permanent employees at the Wilson farm. Quinones Segarra had been employed there for more than a year and Enrique Casiano had been asked to remain as a permanent employee during his first season at the farm this summer.

Both were described as "excellent workers" to Dr. Crist and Officer Yanetti.

The bodies were released to the Bender Funeral Home.

Blast Breaks Power Lines

A charge of dynamite this morning sent rocks flying into the air, striking electric wires near the Metropolitan Edison substation between the Biglerville and Mummansburg Rds. and causing a 45-minute power failure to domestic and commercial users from Gettysburg to Orrtanna.

Linemen from the power company were able to switch to the "dual feed" system to restore current to business and private residences after flying rocks severed one of the main lines running across an open field from the substation to the Biglerville Rd. The incident affected the Seven Stars-Cashtown-Orrtanna area as well as part of Gettysburg.

The Gettysburg Times mechanical department was without current for 45 minutes, completely stopping composing and printing operations. The news room was without power for 10 minutes, affecting the teletype machine and engraving process.

A spokesman for the power company said that contractors were excavating in a field near the line and set off the blast to break up heavy rock formations impairing the progress of the work. There were no reports of personal injuries from the blast.

Mountains Of New Evidence Point To Oswald As JFK's Slayer; Was Acting On Own

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mountains of newly disclosed evidence pinned securely today the sole guilt of President John F. Kennedy's assassination on Lee Harvey Oswald, the Marxist who said he hated America but found that the Soviet Union "stunk."

The 26 volumes of Warren Commission hearing transcript, released Monday, bared in full the charges of those who hold that Oswald was only the triggerman for a conspiracy or — as his mother testified — a scapegoat for murderers still uncaught.

The testimony revealed that those witnesses offered only admitted speculation, opinion, or unsupported theory.

PRINCIPALS DISAGREE

Most of it was rebutted by the hard evidence against Oswald, piled up remorselessly in thousands of pages of testimony and still more thousands of exhibits.

There were disagreements even among those at the center of the nightmare events of Nov. 22, 1963. Did the dying president speak? No, said the widow Jacqueline, who was splashed with his gushing life blood. Yes, said the Secret Service agent in the front seat, the president said, "My God, I am hit."

Texas Gov. John B. Connally heard only two shots, his wife heard three. On some other details those closest to the vortex of sudden swirling tragedy disagreed.

SECRET SERVICE "EXEMPLARY"

But the inexorable thrust of the mass of evidence was that: Lee Oswald, 24, a trunk son who once drew a knife on his mother and contemptuously refused to see "a head shrinker or a nut doctor," had the capacity, the opportunity, the means and the will to assassinate a president. And, as Chief Justice Earl Warren said, "He was a cold-blooded killer."

Adams County was designated as the attendance area for a proposed area technical school in this county at the November meeting of the Adams County Board of School Directors Monday evening.

The action was by unanimous vote of the four members of the board in attendance.

The attendance area recommendation will be sent to Harrisburg for approval and further action here will await acceptance of the plan by the state Board of Education.

MADE TWO SURVEYS

The board's action was taken in the light of a student-interest survey made earlier this year by Assistant County Superintendent of Schools George B. Inskip showing that up to 800 public and Catholic high school students would be interested in technical training courses as part of their high school work.

Before Monday's action was taken, the board studied a financial survey made by municipal bond experts from Philadelphia and New York indicating that Adams County could gain a $1,000,000 technical school plant with an increase of not more than a half mill of taxation for a 30-year bond issue.

Jerry Wolf of L. F. Rothschild and Co. and Charles Rogers of Rambo, Close and Kerner, Inc., told the board: "The costs of a program can be allocated over a broad base. The resultant cost of any single district is negligible when compared to the many advantages of a comprehensive vocational curriculum." The firms recommended a bond issue of not more than 30 years because of substantial interest savings.

HAVE FINANCIAL ABILITY

"It is our conclusion," the experts said, "that the combined school districts of Adams County have the financial ability to support a joint technical facilities construction program of the size proposed and that the cost to any single district will be nominal."

THANKSGIVING ORIGIN TRACED FOR AUXILIARY

Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter, R. 6, a member of the faculty of Gettysburg College, spoke at the meeting of the Warner Hospital Auxiliary Monday afternoon in the dining room on "Thanksgiving—The Making of a Holiday."

Opening with the statement that the urge to return thanks is much older than the Plymouth settlement of 1620, he spoke of the 100 persons who came to America on the Mayflower in December, 1620, half of whom survived that bitter winter.

They established friendly relations with the Indians and the next year succeeded in reaping a good harvest. In December they invited Chief Massasoit and 90 Indians to join them in three days of entertaining and feasting, the Indians providing five deer for the feast.

In 1623 a second thanksgiving celebration was held after a dry summer and gradually it became an annual custom, establishing Thanksgiving as a deep-rooted custom long before the American Revolution.

"The Puritans scarcely observed Christmas at all," Dr. Glatfelter said, "considering it as part of Popery but they did spend as long as a week in joy and feasting over the harvest." It was while Congress was in session at York, Pa., that the first national Thanksgiving proclamation was issued, November 1, 1777, calling upon the several states to designate.

It will work for the adoption and approval by the legislature of 12 comprehensive amendments to the state constitution proposed by the Governor's Commission on Constitutional Revision.

The Pennsylvania Bar Association already has recommended a number of changes in the original proposals of the governor's commission.

Bond is a director of the Philadelphia National Bank, Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Provident Mutual Life Insurance Co., National Dairy Products Co., and the Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania.

Eastern vice chairman of the new group will be attorney Gustave Amsterdam, president and board chairman of the Bankers Securities Corp., chairman of the Philadelphia Redevelopment Authority, director of the Philadelphia Electric Co. and director of the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Co.

KIWANIANS HEAR FARMERS

Changes in agriculture over the last few years were outlined by three members of the Gettysburg Young Farmers at Monday evening's meeting of the Kiwanis Club in the Holiday Inn.

Wives of the Kiwanis members and the members of the Business and Professional Women's Club joined at which Edwin Kann, president-elect of Kiwanis, presided.

Lyndale Brandon, John Schwartz and Donald Dillon were the speakers, illustrating their talks with slides. They showed use of modern machinery in poultry houses, dairy and milking operations, and in livestock handling, fruit, tomatoes and cabbage production — including use of irrigation. Dillon, who has won numerous honors as a farmer, reported he is now raising cabbage commercially on his farm by employing irrigation.

The Business and Professional Women's Club, meeting for the fourth year in an interclub session with Kiwanis, conducted a contest to determine whether man or woman is the most talkative. Mrs. Philip Hughes was in charge of the contest at which various men and women were asked to speak on whatever was drawn from a bag — including a boot, a stocking and other items. Robert W. Geigley, summing up the contest, held that "No established opinions on the subject were changed by the results of the contest."

Following the regular meeting a session of the Fiftieth Anniversary Committee was held to discuss special programs for the 1965 celebration of the 50th anniversary of Kiwanis International.

Warren, through his attorney, Gerald Walmer, had argued that the original ordinance made him the only person in the community who could not give pay TV to his customers if it became available, since he would be forbidden by law to provide it, while persons receiving television through their own antennas would be able to obtain it. Warren held that he has no thought of providing pay TV through his cables but that he objected to being discriminated in advance from any change in television that might come about in the future.

The original ordinance had provided a 10-year term for the non-exclusive franchise. Warren objected that he would be unable to obtain bonding with the 10-year "cut off" as provided by the ordinance. As a result the proposed ordinance was changed to provide for a renewal of the franchise for another 10 years if all conditions of the ordinance are met during the first decade.

OYLER'S VIEWS

The proposed ordinance would give council full control over the CATV system and provides that if the terms are violated council can withdraw the right and direct that the lines be taken down, with a $25,000 bond guaranteeing that the system could be removed at no cost to the borough.

Attorney Donald G. Oyler, borough solicitor, asked about the rights of council to control Community Antenna Television, said there is nothing in the borough code directly giving council such a right, nor anything forbidding it. He held that since there have been no court cases or state regulations pertaining to the matter "we can only proceed on implied rights for protection of the public welfare. I think there is a reasonably good chance the courts would back up such an ordinance, but until some court has acted in this CATV matter no one knows for sure."

A plaque presented to council by the Black Walnut Boy Scout District for service to youth was turned over to council by Mayor William G. Weaver.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U. S. Army sergeant was missing today after a Viet Cong ambush overran a government convoy 22 miles east of Saigon. The Communist guerrillas killed 15 Vietnamese soldiers and wounded nine others, hitting the convoy with intense automatic weapons fire.

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson was up most of the night, keeping in almost constant touch with the attempt to rescue hostages held by Congolese rebels.

George E. Roedy, White House press secretary, reported today that Johnson was up until 4 a.m. by which time, Roedy said, "the situation seemed reasonably well in hand."

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A three-story apartment building was ripped apart by a terrific explosion early today, killing two children and injuring 15 others residents. One person was missing.

The blast, believed caused by an accumulation of gas, laid the interior of the brick building open like a stage set. It was heard more than two miles away.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 958 will not meet this week. The Cuca Loro Patrol will meet Friday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at the Eisenhower School, wearing full dress uniform. The troop leader is Mrs. Wayne Husband.

Computer Picks Girl's Brother

PROVO, Utah (AP)—If a computer can be embarrassed the Brigham Young University electronic brain should be blushing.

Once a year the computer makes matches for a dance, pairing boys and girls with similar interests.

Bonnie Mitchell, 18, Provo, a red-haired freshman, asked for a tall boy with dark hair and blue eyes, who likes entertainment and looks on marriage favorably.

The male picked for her by the computer from BYU's 15,500 students was tall, had asked for a date with a red-haired girl, likes entertainment and looks on marriage favorably.

He was Richard Mitchell, 19, Bonnie's brother. Bonnie went to the weekend dance with Richard and said she had an "interesting" time.

MIDDLETOWN, Pa. (AP)—A truck loaded with highly explosive hydrogen sprung a leak today at the Highspire rest stop along the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Explosives experts from the nearby Olmsted Air Force Base were called immediately to the scene and the rest stop was closed to traffic.

Two fire trucks stood by in case of an explosion. Officials at the nearby Middletown Area High School were ordered to keep the pupils inside the building in case of dangerous fumes.

The leak was discovered when the truck stopped for gasoline. All men and women in the rest stop area were evacuated.

FRENCH QUINTS FRAIL, REMAIN IN INCUBATORS

By RODNEY ANGOVE
PARIS (AP)—Doctors keeping vigil over the new French quintuplets said today their condition will remain precarious for at least 10 or 12 days.

The three boys and two girls born prematurely Monday to a postman's 27-year-old wife lay in incubators at the pediatric center of the Paris Faculty of Medicine.

"The fragility of the children is extreme," said a statement from the clinic. "It is impossible at this time to comment on their chances for survival."

After their birth, the babies had been reported in good condition.

PREMATURE BIRTH

The mother, Mrs. Raymond Sambor, gave birth about two months ahead of schedule in a private clinic in suburban Asnières, where her 35-year-old husband delivers mail. She was reported in excellent health.

The babies, weighing less than three pounds each, arrived at intervals of about 10 minutes. Sambor had been told after his wife's X-ray to expect quintuplets, but he told newsmen he was still "overwhelmed."

The Sambors also have two sons, Yves, 5, and Jean-Paul, 3. Sambor, who has been making $120 a month as a postman, said he was worried about the future.

"I don't know yet what I'm going to do and whether I'm going to look for another job," he told newsmen. "I've got to get organized."

JURY FAILS TO

earlier in the evening.

HAD BEEN DRINKING

On the stand Bucher testified he was using his turn signals but did not see the Harbaugh car although he has three rearview mirrors. He had "two beers" earlier in the evening, he said. He was "not going very fast" when the collision occurred. Later the speed was placed at 15 or 20 miles an hour.

Robert Sites, 23, Fairfield R. 1, a passenger in the Bucher car, said he had not told the truth the day of the crash when he told officers Bucher's turn signal was on. "I'm not going to lie for anybody," he said on the stand and added he did not see Bucher turn on the turn signals.

On the stand Harbaugh estimated his speed at about 50 miles an hour.

Trooper Clifford D. Lightner of the Gettysburg substation of the state police, who investigated the fatality, said Bucher's turn signal was operable after the crash. He reported on statements given him the morning of the accident by persons involved.

The members of the jury included Maurice Steiner, Thomas Crist, Lloyd Palmer, Dale Bream, Richard Schultz and Hugh C. McIlhenny.

Detroit Papers End Long Strike

DETROIT (AP)—Detroiters may be reading their two regular daily newspapers again tonight and Wednesday after going without them for 134 days.

Early editions of the morning Detroit Free Press expected to come out tonight, would be the first since a strike of two craft unions closed the Free Press and the afternoon Detroit News last July 13.

The Detroit News planned to publish its first post-strike edition Wednesday.

A settlement with Local 13 of the Printing Pressmen concluded the strike Saturday. Local 10 of the Plate and Paper Handlers settled earlier.

MISSIONARY FREED

MILLERSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Miss Mary Rutt, 51, a Lancaster County native, was among the first American missionaries freed today from the rebels in the Congo, her sister-in-law, Amos Rutt, said.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The "economic failures" of communism have become so evident, says Secretary of State Dean Rusk, that even Soviet leaders "are talking more and more about incentives and larger private plots for farmers — and even about profits."

In a speech Monday before the American Institute for Free Labor Development, Rusk said that from 1950 to 1963 the Soviet Union increased its gross national product by about $148 billion, compared with Western Europe and Canada's $200 billion and the United States' $210 billion.

STOCKS DECLINE
NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market showed a fairly sharp decline early this afternoon in the wake of the boost in interest rates by the Federal Reserve Board.

Trading was quite active but there was no great selloff on the news.

The market was going through its usual performance after a rise in the discount rate, brokers said. Some analysts noted that such declines are usually temporary.

Mickey Mantle set a World Series record by playing in 63 games.

STUDENTS IN PANAMA TRY TO STIR FUSS

PANAMA (AP) — Rebellious students appeared today to be trying to foment a general strike against President Marco A. Robles.

Leaders of the Federation of University Students called a 24-hour classroom strike Monday night but it was believed they hoped to marshal support for a nationwide labor walkout.

The student attempt to generate a strike should show the extent of support among labor groups for Robles' policy, considered one of the sternest ever taken by a Panamanian government toward students.

Battle-ready National Guardsmen, Panama's army and police, quelled an anti-American demonstration by students and left-wing extremists Monday.

Thirteen persons were injured and 18 arrested as the guardsmen waded into a mob of about 2,000 persons near the legislative palace. The soldiers fired guns and tear gas and swung their riot sticks.

The avowed purpose of the rally was to urge a stronger posture in talks with the United States on the 1963 canal treaty. Agitators shouted "Throw the Yankees out of Panama."

THANKSGIVING

PROMOTED HOLIDAY

In 1846 Sarah Josepha Hale, a Philadelphia widow, who for 40 years served as editor of Godey's Lady Book to support her children, began suggesting a national Thanksgiving Day, and in the fall of 1863 she requested President Lincoln to ask the state governors to unite in choosing a day, Lincoln and his Secretary of State William H. Seward drew up a proclamation setting aside the last Thursday in November, 1863, as "a day of thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father Who dwelleth in the heavens," and every year since, the President of the United States has issued a Thanksgiving proclamation.

Dr. Glatfelter said, "We have taken one approach to the subject of Thanksgiving this afternoon. It is the approach which informs us. In being informed we should not forget that men from 1621 down to the present have assumed that it is meet and right to give thanks and that this thanks is not due to mortal man but, as Lincoln and Seward put it, "to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens."

BUSINESS MEETING

Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, president, presided at the business meeting which followed. Mrs. Mark A. Eckert, treasurer, reported that $58.94 has been received from the sale of Tupperware. Donald Wagner, acting administrator of the hospital, requested that no cooking be done in the snack bar because of its location in the center of patient-care rooms. The auxiliary took action to seek equipment to keep food odors from going into the corridors. Wagner spoke of some of the present needs of the hospital but suggested that no project be adopted until the board of directors assesses present needs.

Mrs. J. H. Hammett, snack bar chairman, reported that Mrs. Donald Trostle is employed regularly there but that volunteers are still needed. She will conduct a second workshop for volunteers December 2 from 10 to 11 a.m. in the snack bar and invited any one in the county who can help to attend. Several times teams of husbands and wives have taken evening tricks, she said. Mrs. Walter S. Mountain Jr. stated that the snack cart which is taken around the hospital one hour three times a week has made $325 this year.

Mrs. M. C. Jones reported that

3 STUDENTS SENT TO JAIL

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Three Allegheny College students are spending 10 days in jail as part of their sentences on charges of vandalizing a cemetery.

Crawford County Judge P. Richard Thomas, who placed them on a year's probation Monday, said the jail sentence was so that in later years they would not reflect on this as "just having been a college prank."

The defendants, who also were fined $100 each and ordered to pay $750 each in restitution to the Blooming Valley Cemetery Association were:

Jeffrey Lee Meredith, 21, of Tucson, Ariz.; Tom H. Freeman, 21, of Bradford, Pa.; and Donald J. Tracey Jr., 20, of Westport, Conn.

They previously pleaded guilty to malicious mischief and had been suspended from college.

The trio damaged 223 grave markers last Oct. 27 at the cemetery north of Meadville, police said.

HOME IS SOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Meley have sold their home in Ardentsville to Mr. and Mrs. Dale E. Thomas, Biglerville. The sale was made through Floyd J. Kump, salesman for Lee M. Hartman, Realtor. Mr. and Mrs. Meley are moving to Hanover.

GETS FIRST BEAR

Joseph T. Reed, 24, Gettysburg R. 6, shot a black bear in Cameron County Monday. It was the first time he had gone bear hunting.

57 adult tickets have been sold for the Pittsburgh Symphony and more are available from her. Mrs. Paul L. Roy, membership chairman, reported 339 paid members to date, including 20 new members. She introduced Mrs. Reuben Parsons, Union Bridge, Md., as a new member. Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, hospital library chairman, reported that plans are being made with Mr. Wagner to build new shelves and change of the location of the library. Mrs. S. Blaine Miller, photo babe chairman, reported that 131 pictures had been taken and paid for during the month.

Mrs. James H. Allison brought up the matter of a Christmas bazaar in 1965. After much discussion the auxiliary decided to have a fall bazaar and a request was made to members for old Christmas arrangements, straw baskets or place mats, artificial flowers, beads, old jewelry, etc., for the workshop which will be set up for this project. The auxiliary will buy Christmas trees and provide Christmas favors for the hospital. There will be no December meeting, the next meeting being held January 4. Twenty-five members attended. The Wednesday Bridge Club was hostess for the coffee hour with Mrs. William G. Weaver pouring.

Mountains

Warren and his six investigative colleagues found, did so.

The question asked ever since by shocked Americans — could it have been prevented? — was answered negatively by Secret Service Chief James J. Rowley. His agents in Dallas performed "in an exemplary manner," said Rowley.

RECOUNT GRISLY SCENE
Laden as it was with hind-sights and might-have-beens, the testimony was also illumined with grisly scenes etched forever on memories.

The widow of John F. Kennedy remembered: "And just as I turned and looked at him, I could see a piece of his skull and I remember it was flesh colored. I remember thinking he just looked as if he had a slight headache . . . and then he sort of did this, put his hand to his forehead, and fell into my lap."

Gov. Connally, conscious despite grave wounds, saw on the pale blue upholstery a "chunk of brain tissue as big as almost my thumbnail."

SKULL IN STREET

Secret Service agent Clinton Hill, who leaped on the accelerating car as it sped off to Parkland Hospital, thought he knew why Mrs. Kennedy crawled out on the rear deck of the automobile — an episode she said she could not recall.

Hill said he thought she was "reaching for something coming off the rear tail of the car." He grabbed her, put her back in the seat. "The next day we found the portion of the president's head . . . it was found in the street."

The stark fear of a wife waiting alone in a hospital corridor was confessed by Mrs. Connally: "I guess like any other woman, I wondered if all the doctors were in the room on the left and they were not taking too good care of my husband on the right. I shouldn't have worried about that, should I?"

ENTIRE SET RELEASED

The testimony released Monday was the basis for the commission's findings, issued eight weeks ago. It was scheduled for distribution to newsmen Wednesday and for release in newspapers and for public sale next Monday.

The Associated Press obtained access to some of the volumes and sent out stories Monday after some prior publication elsewhere. A few hours later, the White House released the entire set for publication for public sale.

The testimony dealt at length with the motives of Jack Ruby, the Dallas night club operator convicted of murdering Oswald during a jail shift two days after the assassination. A curious sentence highlighted that testimony.

CURIOUS SENTENCE

"I guess I just had to show the world a Jew has guts," Ruby told Forrest V. Sorrels, Secret Service agent in charge of the Dallas office.

Oswald's mother, the twice-widowed Mrs. Marguerite Oswald of Fort Worth, insisted on the commission, as she has in paid lecture appearances, that her son might have been a secret agent of the Central Intelligence Agency who was set up to take the blame for the assassination.

She acknowledged she had no supporting evidence, however.

Lee's half-brother, John Edward Pic, testified that he believes his mother "is out right now to make as much money as she can on her relationship with Lee Harvey Oswald."

OSWALD'S VIEWS

LT. Francis L. Martello, who interviewed Oswald in New Orleans after the former Marine became involved in a street brawl while distributing Castro literature, said Oswald considered himself a Marxist, not a Russian-style Communist, and said he hated America. "I asked him what he thought of the form of communism in Russia, since he had lived there for two years, and he replied 'It stinks.'"

In the Dallas jail, after the arrest, Oswald gave arrogant denials to every question about the assassination, Dallas Police Chief Jesse E. Curry told the commission.

SECRETS DIED

His secrets died with him. Frantic and futile efforts to obtain a deathbed statement, just after the fatal shot from Jack Ruby's pistol, were described by Dallas Police Detective R. H. Combest.

Oswald heard and recognized Combest and appeared to understand the officer's urging that "if he wanted to say anything he was going to have to say it then."

"Oswald just shook his head," Combest said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States committed a record $1.19 billion to aid Latin America during the fiscal year ended last June 30, a government report said Monday.

Actual spending for the calendar year of 1963, the report said, amounted to $811.9 million.

DELONE PTA PLANS PARTY ON SATURDAY

Final plans for the first class-sponsored public party at Delone Catholic High School, to be held on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, were furthered at the meeting of the Delone PTA executive board held on Thursday evening in the faculty room. Joseph Price is general chairman for arrangements.

There will be cards in the auditorium and other games, a bake sale and refreshments in the cafeteria. The Junior Class students and their parents, with class officers and their parents as a steering committee, will provide the prizes, cakes, candy, etc., as well as personnel for manning the various events. Mrs. Donald Sieg, New Oxford board representative, will supervise the cake and candy table and Mrs. Wayne Asper, Gettysburg representative on the board, will be in charge of the kitchen.

Mrs. Mark Redding and Mrs. Matthew Gabrys, cochairmen of the annual rummage sale, attended the meeting to report on the recent fund-raising event. The total net profit of this annual affair reached $1,577, the highest amount ever netted. Surplus articles from the sale were donated to Catholic Charities office in York.

PLAN ACTION COMMITTEE
It was decided to form a PTA Action Committee. James G. Sneeringer, vice president, Gettysburg; A. Louis Ratti, St. Joseph's, Hanover, and President Zimmerman will comprise the committee.

A reorganization of the Delone Alumni Association was suggested and a committee consisting of Mrs. Donald Sieg, New Oxford; Richard Bennett, St. Vincent's, Hanover, and James Sneeringer was appointed to secure information on the former organization and a plan for establishing a new organization and to report at the next meeting.

There was a discussion as to whether a precedent had even been established concerning attendance at the Senior Prom. It was the consensus of the board that members of the Senior Class only should be stag or without escort, but that this privilege would not extend to the underclassmen who could continue to attend by invitation.

A framed text of the late President John F. Kennedy's inaugural address was presented to the school. Other matters pertaining to the board and the school were discussed with remarks and closing prayer by Father Lyons concluding the session. The board will meet again on Thursday, December 10.

Shriver Called To LBJ Ranch Today

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson called Sargent Shriver to his ranch today to go over detailed plans for carrying out the administration's $800-million "war on poverty."

George E. Reedy, White House press secretary, said Shriver, director of the anti-poverty program, planned to announce more than 100 projects after the ranch conference. These were expected to include job training projects and community action programs.

One of them will be a job corps training center to be set up in San Marcos, 50 miles from here, under a government contract with Southwest Texas State College officials.

HAVE HEARING TRANSCRIPT

Board members were told by County Supt. M. Francis Coulson that the 89-page transcript of the appeal hearing on the Adams County Plan of School Reorganization before the State Board of Education on November 4 has been received.

The board after some discussion took no further action in connection with the county plan. There has been no request, it was pointed out, from Conewago Twp., or McSherrystown borough school districts for their release to York County. At the October meeting the Adams County board disapproved release of the two districts to York County but expressed a willingness to receive Hanover into the Adams County plan.

The board gave routine approval to transportation routes for district-owned school buses in the Littlestown joint district; approved financial and auditors' reports from Huntingdon and Reading Twp.s, and approved financial accounts of special services operated by the county office.

The meeting adjourned at 10:10 o'clock.

For them it is a way of life. In my own case my grandfather was in the nursery business from 1865 to 1905.

NEW GENERATION

"The younger generation is taking over in Adams County, for the most part sons of men who spent their lifetime in the industry. And we have a vigorous growing apple industry. I am certain that the apple industry will be going strong in Adams County long after all of us here tonight are gone."

"In streamlined operation we can make money from processing apples, and in doing a good job of growing processing apples we can also grow fresh market apples the equal of any grown in the world. The 35 members of the Mountain Orchard Co-operative will pack about 400,000 boxes such as the one I have here tonight. Adams County is selling apples throughout much of the world. We think of the Common Market as representing Europe and we are cut off from the Common Market because it produces its own apples. But there are England, Ireland, Sweden, Norway, Finland, a lot of the world not in the Common Market, and we are selling regularly to those countries. Ireland sent buyers to Adams County this fall. And while the Common Market is difficult to enter, we ourselves put apples into Germany this year. By using Grace Line ships we are putting apples into Puerto Rico, Panama, Venezuela and Peru.

"Adams County is doing a good job of apple production. That is best proved by the great number of delegations from all over, including Canada, coming here to see how we do it."

President C. William Harbaugh presided at the meeting. The speaker was introduced by Dr. Frederick Tilberg, Group singing was led by Dr. Harold Dunkelberger and Dr. Kenneth Smoke.

The meeting adjourned at 10:10 o'clock.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Sent To Belgium: Residents of Fairfield and vicinity are the first people from this section to send supplies to starving Belgians, having shipped four boxes of provisions this morning. They also contributed about thirty dollars in money.

Miss Alice Baugher Dies: After an illness of less than a day, following a stroke of apoplexy Tuesday evening, Miss Alice Baugher died at her home on Carlisle street shortly before three o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Miss Baugher was born in Gettysburg, a daughter of Dr. H. L. Baugher, president of Gettysburg College. She was organist of the College Lutheran Church for a long period and fifty-one years ago today was a member of the choir at the dedication of the Soldiers' National Cemetery. Scores of the young people of town studied music under Miss Baugher's instruction and as late as Tuesday afternoon she gave a lesson to one of her pupils. She was the last surviving member of a family of five children. Among the survivors are Mrs. William A. Martin, a sister-in-law, and Miss Bessie Baugher, a niece.

Horse On Pavement: When Russell Stouffer, son of H. T. Stouffer, Water street, lost control of a horse on which he was riding on Baltimore street this morning, the animal went up on the pavement in front of the H. B. Bender store and broke a desk and rocking chair which were standing there. The boy was thrown off but not hurt and the horse was gotten under control before any further damage was done.

Honor Memory Of Lincoln's Speech: In the presence of an audience that filled the Presbyterian Church, exercises commemorating the delivery of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address fifty-one years ago were held Thursday evening. In the gathering were fifty or more Gettysburg people who saw Lincoln at the time of his visit here, many of whom heard him give his address at the dedication of the Soldiers' National Cemetery. The special event of the evening was the unveiling of three tablets of bronze on the pew occupied by Lincoln and John Burns at the service in the cemetery which followed the cemetery dedication. Two little girls, Martha Bell and Katharine Hill, lifted the drapery which covered the tablets presented by J. W. Johnson of Rochester. The unveiling of the bronze tablet on the front of the church, the gift of Colonel E. B. Cope, was done by James B. Aumen at the conclusion of the services. The exercises of Thursday evening opened with the singing of the Battle Hymn of the Republic by J. S. Nicholas, the audience joining in the chorus. Rev. J. B. Baker offered an appropriate prayer and Dr. T. C. Billheimer told of the visit of Lincoln and Burns to the church. On the day of the service Dr. Billheimer sat scarcely ten feet from Lincoln and remembers distinctly all the incidents of the occasion. A poem "Lincoln at Gettysburg," written by Dr. L. W. Allen, Newark, was read by Dr. C. F. Sanders and Judge Swope read Colonel Cope's brief note of presentation for the tablet on the church exterior. The unveiling followed with the formal presentation by Mr. Johnston and the acceptance by Rev. F. E. Taylor, pastor of the church. Mr. Taylor read Judge Willis' account of Lincoln's visit here, which would show that his

BLAME

Blame has caused more unhappiness, more travail and tragedy than anything that I can think of.

Wars always start by blaming another nation for something — usually something trivial that could be easily settled by calm, and mutual good feelings. When the wars start, the biggest minds, so called, are mustered to explain and to try to make reasonable that blame. But blame is never a thing to be explained or made reasonable. When a terrible tragedy occurs, through the wreck of a plane, a train, a sunk submarine, or the falling of a building, at once a group is gotten together to set the blame. Usually the placing of the blame does little good, though it often points a lesson and saves future tragedies of like nature.

Two people argue and bitter words cut into the hearts of each. Each tries to set the blame for something upon the other. Perhaps neither is to blame — excepting to blame the other, and then, again, perhaps each is to blame — which leaves nothing settled and unhappy damage all around.

It is far better to take the blame, though you don't deserve it, than to keep blaming and get nowhere as to a happy solution.

If anyone is to blame in a dispute, or misunderstanding that concerns you, take that blame — and then bury it! Don't keep it alive. It may destroy everything you hold dear and sacred, unless you do.

Most of us are queer creatures of emotion, proud and sensitive — often in our conceit and selfishness — but it is better and more courageous to take blame, and handle it with fine fortitude, than to try and pass it on to someone unable to bear it.

There are too many things of importance in this world to work out happily to waste time in trying to place the blame upon anyone!

Tomorrow's subject: "The Habit of Friendliness"

Gettysburg address was written while in town Judge McClean told many stories of the life and character of John Burns and persons in the audience were asked to relate instances of the visit of Lincoln here. Among those who spoke were William H. Tipton, who saw Burns start out to battle, William A. McIlhenny, Theodore McAllister, John E. Pitzer and Miss Agnes McCreary. Prof. Sowers read a letter from Hon. W. T. Ziegler telling his recollections. Col. James K. P. Scott read Dr. Allen's poem on "John Burns" and after the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" the exercises came to a close. A group picture of many of those who remembered Lincoln's visit was taken by Mr. Tipton at the close of the service. Col. Cope was prevented by illness from attending the unveiling of the tablet which he presented. On the arm of the pew in the church will be a small plate on which will be inscribed "The Lincoln Pew" and on the end will be a more pretentious bronze tablet with this inscription: "Abraham Lincoln sat in this pew at a patriotic service held on the evening of the day he dedicated the National Cemetery." On the back of the seat in front of the Lincoln pew will be another tablet with this inscription: "John Burns, Scottish American patriot, a hero of the Battle of Gettysburg, was here signally honored by the great president. Abraham Lincoln and John Burns walked arm in arm to patriotic services held in this edifice on the evening of November 19, 1863. They sat together in this pew." Several months ago there was placed on the outside of the church a bronze tablet presented by Colonel Cope which bears the inscription "Abraham Lincoln occupied a seat in this church, November 19, '63 on the day he dedicated the National Cemetery and made his immortal address."

Miss Reba Miller has returned from the Church Home Hospital, Baltimore, where she recently underwent an operation.

Bream-Stoner: In the parsonage of Trinity Lutheran Church, at 7 o'clock Friday evening Wilmer E. Bream and Margaret H. Stoner, both of Biglerville were married by Dr. E. D. Weigle. The ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was used. The bridegroom is a nephew of Mrs. E. D. Weigle, wife of the officiating clergyman. A supper was served, after which the happy couple left on a wedding trip of some days.

Entertained Forces: The office and shop forces of The Times were guests Monday evening at an elaborate turkey dinner given by Mr. A. Danner Buehler in honor of the birthday of Mr. Buehler, foreman of the establishment. As a token of their esteem for him the Times force presented Mr. Buehler with a gold watch chain.

Poultry Farm Sold: George Dentler has sold his thirty acre poultry farm at the edge of Biglerville, to his brother Jacob Dentler, R. 6.

IRISH GAME WITH SC TO BE DECISIVE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Notre Dame, the country's top-ranked college football team, may not play in a bowl, but the Fighting Irish probably will decide Michigan's opponent in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

The unbeaten, untied Irish go after their 10th straight victory Saturday against Southern California in Los Angeles. The Trojans are tied with Oregon State for the lead in the Pacific Athletic Conference, but the PAC faculty advisors announced Monday they would defer their vote until after the Notre Dame-Southern Cal game.

The inference is that if the Trojans upset Notre Dame or make a good showing they might be selected over Oregon State for the Rose Bowl. Southern Cal and Oregon State both are 3-1 in conference play while over-all Oregon State is 8-2 and the Trojans 6-3.

The postponement of the PAC team selection was the main news Monday, bowl-wise, although West Virginia announced it had accepted an invitation to play in the Dec. 19 Liberty Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J., in the first major bowl game to be played indoors.

No opponent was named for the Mountaineers although Gomer Jones, Oklahoma coach, said the Sooners had been contacted.

CHANCE

Things happen in the strangest way,
And dull were life were this not so.
Remove the chance from every day,
Let consequences plainly show,
And most of us would sit at home,
Afraid a single mile to roam.

A grain of dust, a wisp of straw,
A vain attempt to stop a sneeze,
And time has taken from the raw
The stuff which fashions destinies.
Two people meet and none can say
What follows centuries away.

The future's made of what's to be,
The past what might have been contains,
Yet back and forth men never see
To reckon rightly losses, gains
But all adventure and romance
Are seeded by the winds of chance.

W. MICHIGAN IS X-COUNTRY TITLE WINNER

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Western Michigan won its first team title at the 26th annual NCAA Cross-Country run Monday while Elmore Banton of Ohio University led all the way to make it a good day for the Mid-American Conference.

The Broncos from Kalamazoo, Mich., never before had taken a national title. They finished first with a low of 86 points. Oregon was second with 116 points and Ohio University, of Athens, Ohio, third with 122.

Banton, a 142-pound junior from Akron, sprinted out at the start and never was caught. He finished nearly 75 yards ahead of Bill Clark of Notre Dame. Jim Murphy of Air Force was third, Dave Wighton of Colorado fourth and Walt Hewlett of Harvard fifth.

Banton covered the four miles in 20:04.5, a creditable performance considering the 36-degree temperature, a 17 mile-per-hour wind and slippery snow and slush.

The best NCAA championship time over a four-mile course was 19:12.3 by Max Truex of Southern California in 1957. All of the 180 starters crossed the finish line.

Three Warriors And One Canner Named To Blue Mountain All-Star Team

Three Gettysburg High School players and one from Biglerville were selected to the Blue Mountain Conference all-star football team for 1964 at the annual all-conference meeting Monday evening at the Dutch Pantry, Camp Hill.

The coaches picked Bill Jones, end; Jim Rowe, tackle; and Dick Finkboner, quarterback, from the Warriors; and Terry Taylor, fullback, from Biglerville.

Charlie Hess, Canner tackle, was chosen for the second team. Among the honorable mentions were: Guards, Tom Hefflin, Gettysburg; and Mel Mentzer, Biglerville; halfback, Ron Plank, and fullback, Mike Herring, both of Gettysburg.

Approval was given to the 1966 football, the 1965-66 basketball and the 1966-67 wrestling schedules.

AWARD TROPHIES

Harry Jacobs, Shippensburg, league president, presented East Pennsboro with the 1964 football and baseball championship trophies. The runnerup trophy in football was given to Gettysburg.

It was decided the 1965 conference track meet will be held at East Pennsboro instead of at Gettysburg College. Susquehanna was chosen as the site for the 1966 wrestling championships. Shippensburg will be host to the 1965 meet.

All 10 teams were represented at the dinner meeting.

Representing Gettysburg were George Forney, athletic director; Morris Quint, senior high school principal; and Don Young, football coach. Biglerville was represented by Arthur Gordon, athletic director; Charles Yost, principal; Jack Emanuel, head coach; William Williams, Don Sterner, Jay Schmitt and Gilbert Smith, assistant coaches.

FINAL GRID STATISTICS FOR BULLETS

Junior quarterback Jim Ward and senior flanker Ken Snyder dominated the 1964 Gettysburg College football statistics, the final report revealed.

The Bullet passing combination also shattered a total of 10 records during the campaign. Gettysburg finished the season with a 7-2 overall record and topped its first Middle Atlantic Conference university division championship in history with a 5-1 slate.

Ward, a product of Gaithersburg, Md., completed 90 of 177 aerials for 1,233 yards, 17 touchdowns and four pass conversions. Nine of his tosses were intercepted. Ward also finished second in the rushing department with 79 carries for a net 301 yards giving him a total offense of 1,534 yards. His passes attempted, passing yards, total plays and total yards all set new school records. His 90 completions tied the school mark set by Earl Little in 1961. Ward was also the team's leading punter, having kicked the ball 29 times for a 34.9 average.

TOP STATE SCORER

A native of Hershey and already assured of the state scoring title, Snyder set records for number of passes caught—37, pass receiving yards—673 and number of TD passes—11. He finished the season with 12 touchdowns and one pass conversion for 74 points.

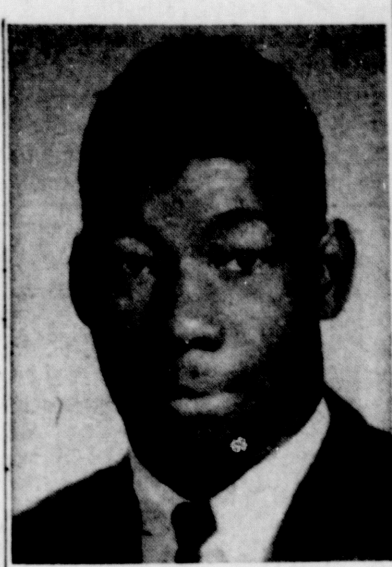

Besides the six individual records, Gettysburg, as a team, set four additional marks. The Bullets completed 140 of 290 passes for 1,951 yards. Gettysburg also recorded a new high of six two-point pass conversions.

What rushing offense the Bullets did display was handled by Senior Tony Presogna, Curwensville, and Sophomore Rod Albright, York, along with Ward. Presogna carried the ball 93 times for 447 yards while Albright accounted for 51 carries and 234 yards.

Lebanon Valley To Drop Baseball

Dr. Frederic K. Miller, president, has announced that beginning with the 1966 season, Lebanon Valley College will be adding lacrosse in its intercollegiate athletic program as a replacement for baseball.

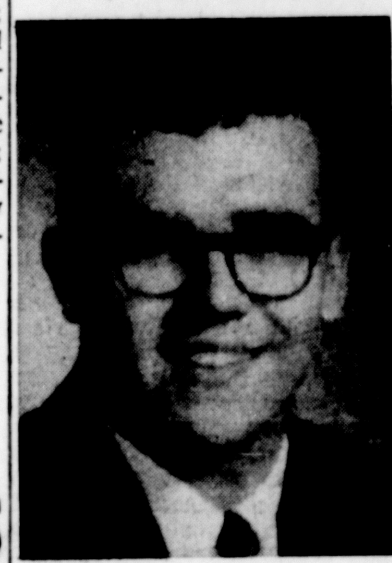

In making the announcement, Dr. Miller noted that even though Lebanon Valley College has experienced serious difficulties in fielding a baseball team in recent years, this change is being instituted only after careful and lengthy study of the institution's spring intercollegiate athletic program. Both he and members of the board of trustees have participated in the study.

G-BURG GRID TEAM SELECTS ALL-FOE TEAM

Delaware's powerful running halfback, Bill Hopkins, and Temple's outstanding left tackle, Ron Koehler, were unanimous choices for Gettysburg College's 1964 all-opponent football team.

The second highest vote producer was Delaware's huge guard Herb Slattery, one of two sophomores selected for the first team.

The finest quarterbacking job turned in against the Bullets throughout the '64 campaign was by Juniata's second-string sophomore Gary Sheppard.

Besides Sheppard and Hopkins in the backfield, the Bullets elected Temple's Jerry Preschutti, a senior halfback, and Albright's senior fullback Bill Bors.

The all-opponent line includes ends Ron Kinsey, Bucknell, and Steve Speers, Temple; tackles Mike McGrain, Hofstra and Koehler; guards Andy Dzurinko, Bucknell, and Slattery, and center Denny Toddings, Delaware.

The second team consists of ends Bob Pascale, Juniata, and Tom Mitchell, Bucknell; tackles, Tom Hincevich, Lehigh, and Terry Morrow, Lafayette; guards Manny Insua, Delaware, and Paul Townsend, Bucknell; center John Hiller, Hofstra; quarterback George Hossenlopp, Lafayette; halfbacks Barry Broadwater, Juniata, and Don Manlove, Albright; and fullback John Barron, Bucknell.

Queen Empress Is Named Top Filly

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps completed a sweep of the Thoroughbred Racing Association's 2-year-old crowns today when her Wheatley Stable's Queen Empress was named the top juvenile filly of the year.

Earlier, the TRA board of selection comprised of 31 racing secretaries, had named Bold Lad the champion colt. The two Wheatley Stable runners, along with five-time Horse of the Year Kelso and Bon Nouvel, voted best of the steeplechasers, will be honored at the TRA's annual dinner here Dec. 3.

Queen Empress, daughter of Bold Ruler who also sired Bold Lad, never was out of the money in 14 starts and earned $319,262. She won eight races, was second four times and third twice.

NOTRE DAME, ALABAMA AT PSU, LAMBERT TOP IN POLL WINNER, MAY GET BOWL BID

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Frank Broyles and his Arkansas Razorbacks have all the victories they need, thanks very much m'am, and they'd just like a couple of losses now.

They've won all they're really allowed to, least-wise in the regular season, you see. Ten of 'em. Their season is over and they're still not No. 1. So the best thing they can hope for is a couple of losses.

That's not to wish Ara Parseghian and his Irish nor Bear Bryant and his Crimson Tide any bad luck, mind you. It's just that's the only way the Razorbacks can gain the No. 1 spot they've sought so long and never achieved.

ONE TO GO

Notre Dame's Fighting Irish retained their No. 1 spot in the latest Associated Press Poll Monday, gaining 36 of the 47 first-place ballots cast.

In all, Notre Dame collected 437 points in the voting on the basis of 10 for first, nine for second, eight for third and so on, while Alabama retained second with six first-place votes and 385 points.

Each has a 9-0 record with one game to go. Notre Dame against Southern California and Alabama against Auburn. Arkansas, No. 3, is through. The Porkers, who have a Cotton Bowl date with Nebraska, closed out their first perfect 10-0 season in 55 years with a 17-0 blanking of Texas Tech.

Ten-0 is, of course, as good as you can do—and this is a team that hoped only to do as well as it's 5-5 record of the season before—but it now would take two major upsets for Arkansas to win it all. Both Notre Dame and Alabama will be solid favorites in their final regular-season games.

Notre Dame, Alabama and Arkansas remained unchanged in the 1-2-3 rankings, but the rest of the nation's elite took a considerable shaking up.

Nebraska, upset by Oklahoma 17-7, dropped from No. 4 to seventh with Michigan moving into the fourth position. The Wolverines upset Ohio State 10-0 for the Big Ten title and a place in the Rose Bowl.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points:

1. Notre Dame (36) 437
2. Alabama (6) 385
3. Arkansas (4) 345

Glenn Ressler On All-East Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Glenn Ressler, Penn State center who saw duty on both offense and defense this season, was named Monday to the Eastern College Athletic Conference weekly All-East football team.

Bruce Molloy of Penn was named to the All-East backfield where he joined Princeton's fullback, Cosmo Iacavazzi, a native of Scranton, Pa.

"Penn State is very much in the running and is as high as anyone on the list," George Olson, general chairman of the selection committee, said Monday.

"The other teams under consideration are Georgia Tech, which finishes against Georgia on Saturday; Auburn, which will play Alabama on Saturday, and Oklahoma, which ends against Oklahoma State on Saturday."

Coach Rip Engle said if Penn State should receive a bid to play in the Gator Bowl, it would be up to the team whether or not to accept it.

Commenting on the Nittany Lions winning their fourth Lambert Trophy, Engle said he felt they deserved it.

"...There's no doubt in my mind that Penn State right now is definitely the best team in the East."

"GREAT TRIBUTE"
Noting that Penn State lost its first three games and then finished the season with a 6-4 record, Engle said:

"We had some real anxious moments early, but this team had tremendous pride in itself. Winning the championship is a great tribute to players who refused to quit. It's fitting recognition of the job they did."

Glenn Ressler, Penn State's star center and middle guard, said winning the trophy was a tribute to a "great comeback."

WARREN SPAHN GOES TO METS; WANTS NO. 400

By BEN OLAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "I want to win 400 games," Warren Spahn, the newest New York Met and baseball's oldest active player, said today.

The Mets purchased the 43-year-old pitcher from Milwaukee Monday in a move to strengthen their pitching and coaching staffs and push their attendance closer to the two-million mark.

Spahn, who holds the major league record of 356 victories by a southpaw, will also serve as a pitching coach. In that capacity he succeeds Mel Harder, who caught on with the Chicago Cubs earlier this month.

WANTS TO START

"The greatest job in baseball is being a starting pitcher and that's what I expect to be next year," Spahn said. He had a 6-13 record with only four complete games in 27 starts last season.

"I wasn't pitching enough last year," he added. "I have to work regularly to be effective. I told Johnny McHale and Bobby Bragan that I wanted to go somewhere else if I didn't fit into their plans."

McHale is Milwaukee's president. Bragan is the Braves' manager.

SEEKS "COMEBACK"

"I am sound physically," Spahn said, "and I'd like nothing better than to make the comeback of the year as a pitcher next season. You don't go from middle age to old age in one year. My aim is still to win 400 games."

The purchase price and Spahn's salary with the Mets were not disclosed. It was believed, however, that he cost the Mets no more than $25,000. His estimated salary with the Braves last season was around $85,000.

"The most important thing he wanted," said George Weiss, the Mets' general manager, "was to take his regular turn as a pitcher."

13 20-GAME SEASONS

The Hartshorne, Okla., resident also holds the major league records for most 20-victory seasons, 13; most strikeouts by a left-hander, 2,493; most years leading league in games won, 8; and most years leading league in complete games, 9. He spent 20 seasons with the Braves.

The Mets last season had a total attendance of 1,732,597 in Shea Stadium, out-drawing the rival Yankees by 427,000. Their figure was topped in the majors only by the Los Angeles Dodgers, who drew 2,228,754 at home.

WHAT'S AT STAKE
"They have every reason in the world to be up for this one," he said. "I can't see that this will be a problem."

The stakes are these: If the Browns win and the St. Louis Cardinals lose to the Pittsburgh Steelers, Cleveland wins the Eastern Conference of the National Football League.

The 28-21 loss last Sunday at Green Bay left the Browns with an 8-2-1 record, while second place St. Louis has a 6-3-2 record. With three games left for each team, any number of Cleveland victories and St. Louis losses totaling two will give the Browns the title.

HILL AT QB

Collier is more concerned with stopping end Pete Retzlaff and running back Tim Brown of the Eagles than he is delivering pep talks. Both Eagles have been ailing but word from Philadelphia is that both are ready for duty Sunday.

The Eagles have switched quarterbacks, replacing Norm Snead with King Hill two weeks ago. Hill led the upset over Dallas and went the distance in the Eagles' 38-13 loss Sunday to St. Louis. Philadelphia is 5-6 for the season.

In a Sunday afternoon contest between the two bottom teams in the South, Harrisburg defeated Scranton, 20-0.

The exact date of the championship playoff between the Bears and the northern winners, the Boston Sweepers, will be announced shortly. It will be played at Newark the first weekend in December.

The Sweepers will have a tune-up, however. They must play Jersey City next Sunday in Boston, a game postponed earlier in the season. Until Saturday night, that contest looked to be crucial.

The Cajun Classic in Lafayette, La., Sunday, Nicklaus — who was second in the tourney — pocketed $113,284.50 in winnings for the year. Palmer was third in the Cajun and his earnings reached $113,203.37.

The PGA said Monday the race was the closest since it started keeping records in 1947. The final Top Ten money winners, listing tournaments played, won and placed among the top five:

	T	W	F
J. Nicklaus, $113,284.50	24	3	17

Bushman Faces Big Task At Biglerville As Only One Letterman Returns

KEN BOYER IS NAMED AS MVP IN NL FOR '64

By CHARLES MCGILLICUDDY

Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Third baseman Ken Boyer, who sparked the St. Louis Cardinals to the National League pennant and a victory in the World Series, was named today the National League's Most Valuable Player for 1964.

The oldest of the famed brothers from Missouri was an easy victor. He was named first on 14 of the 20 ballots cast by the selection committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Boyer's selection gave third basemen a sweep of the MVP awards. Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles was named the American League winner last week.

CALLISON RUNNER-UP

Boyer drew a total of 243 points, with ballots counted on the basis of 10 points for first place, nine for second, eight for third, etc. He drew 56 points more than runner-up Johnny Callison, the outfield star of the Philadelphia Phillies, who had 187 points.

Boyer's teammate, first baseman Bill White, was third with 106½ points.

Boyer is the first member of the St. Louis Cardinals to win since Stan Musial in 1948, the last of three such honors for the Cardinal great. Boyer also is the first third baseman to be selected in the NL since Bob Elliott of Boston in 1947. In fact, Elliott was the only other third sacker picked for the award.

SUCCEEDS KOUFAX

The 1963 MVP was Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers, whose 1964 season was cut short by injuries. A year ago, Koufax received 237 points. His total this year was 7½ for 17th place.

The 1963 runner-up, Dick Groat of St. Louis, did not receive a mention this year.

Boyer, 33, is the ninth St. Louis player to receive the MVP award since the BBWA took over the balloting in 1931. In addition to Musial (1943, 1946 and 1948), other Cardinals honored in the past were Frankie Frisch (1931), Dizzy Dean (1934), Joe Medwick (1937), Mort Cooper (1942) and Marty Marion (1944).

LE DIN RBIS

The spectacular fielding Boyer also had a fine year with the bat. He led the major leagues in runs batted in with 119, belted 24 home runs and was among the league leaders in triples with 10. In all, he accounted for 219 Cardinal runs, scoring 100 to go with the 119 RBIs.

Recognition was a long time coming for the infielder who has been with the Cardinals since 1955.

At bat, he has been amazingly consistent. His .295 1964 batting average was just .001 below his lifetime mark of .296. For the past four years, he has hit exactly 24 home runs in each year. Since 1957, he has driven in at least 90 runs each season.

ON HUNTING TRIP

Boyer first heard the word of his selection on his return from a hunting trip to Hermon, Mo., about 100 miles from his St. Louis home. Convinced the MVP choice wouldn't be announced until later in the week, Boyer thought at first the official notification was a gag.

Boyer said he was fortunate to have played on a team when so many men had such good years, "guys like White, Groat and Gibson. The good years those boys had meant I could win the award."

Mrs. Johnson's Taped Version Of Assassination Recalls Widow's Blood-Caked Gloves

WASHINGTON (AP) — For Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, the most poignant moment of the day John F. Kennedy was assassinated came when she saw Mrs. Kennedy — "that immaculate woman" in a stained dress with her gloves caked with her husband's blood.

The new First Lady said to Jacqueline Kennedy, "You know we never even wanted to be vice president now, dear God, it's come to this."

Mrs. Johnson, soon after the tragedy, dictated her impressions into a tape recorder "primarily as a form of therapy — to help me over the shock and horror."

When the presidential commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren began its investigation, the First Lady sent the commission a transcript of what she had dictated. This was included with the detailed testimony not immediately published when the commission's report was issued Sept. 27. A copy of the transcript now has been obtained by The Associated Press.

Mrs. Johnson and the then vice president rode two cars behind the presidential automobile. Her account said:

DESCRIBES EVENT

"We were rounding a curve, going down a hill, and suddenly there was a sharp loud report — a shot. It seemed to me to come from the right, above my shoulder, from a building. Then a moment and then two more shots in rapid succession. There had been such a gala air that I thought it must be firecrackers or some sort of celebration. Then, in the lead car, the Secret Service men were suddenly down.

"I heard over the radio system, 'Let's get out of here,' and our Secret Service man who up one corridor, back stairs, and down another.

MET MRS. KENNEDY

"Suddenly I found myself face to face with Jackie in a small hall. I think it was right outside the operating room. You always think of her — or someone like her — as being insulated, protected; she was quite alone. I don't think I ever saw anyone so much alone in my life. I went up to her, put my arms around her and said something to her. I'm sure it was something like, 'God, help us all,' because my feelings for her were too tumultuous to put into words.

"And then I went in to see Nellie. . . . I hugged her tight and we both cried and I said, 'Nellie, it's going to be all right.' And Nellie said, 'Yes, John's going to be all right.'"

"PRESIDENT IS DEAD"

"Then I turned and went back to the small white room where Lyndon was." Malcolm Kilduff, assistant presidential press secretary, and Kenney O'Donnell were coming and going. "I think it was Kenney's face and Kenney's voice that I first heard the words, 'The president is dead.'"

"Mr. Kilduff entered and said to Lyndon, 'Mr. President.'"

The Johnsons went to the airport.

FLAG AT HALF MAST

"I looked up at a building and there already was a flag at half-staff. I think that is when the enormity of what had happened first struck me."

Arrangements were made for Johnson to take the oath of office as president.

"Mrs. Kennedy had arrived by this time and the coffin, and there — in the very narrow confines of the plane with Jackie on his left with her hair falling in her face, but very composed, and then Lyndon, and I was on his right. Judge 'Sarah' Hughes with the Bible in front of her and a cluster of Secret Service people and the congressmen we had known for a long time — Lyndon took the oath of office."

"We all sat around the plane. We had at first been ushered into the main private presidential cabin on the plane — but

Archbishop Home From Vatican

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The just-concluded third session of the Vatican Council was one of historic accomplishment and of great progress, says Archbishop John J. Krol.

The Philadelphia Roman Catholic prelate, one of five under-secretaries of the council, told a news conference upon his return from Rome Monday that "a healthy sign" was the way every phrase and every paragraph of the three approved decrees were discussed and debated.

He said he saw no "dark plot" but just "bad timing" as the reason the council adjourned without at least a preliminary vote on "religious liberty." He added the printed draft was not available Nov. 18, with only two working days remaining.

Lyndon quickly said, "No, no," and immediately led us out of there; we felt that is where Mrs. Kennedy should be. The casket was in the hall. I went in to see Mrs. Kennedy and, though it was a very hard thing to do, she made it as easy as possible.

BLOOD-CAKED GLOVES

"She said things like, 'Oh, Lady Bird it's good we've always liked you two so much.' She said, 'Oh, what if I had not been there? I'm so glad I was there.'"

"I looked at her. Mrs. Kennedy's dress was stained with blood. Her right glove was caked — that immaculate woman — it was caked with blood, her husband's blood. She always wore gloves like she was used to them. I never could. Somehow that was one of the most poignant sights, exquisitely dressed and caked in blood. I asked her if I couldn't get someone to help her change, and she said, 'Oh, no. Perhaps later I'll ask Mary Gallagher, a secretary, but not right now.'"

"She said a lot of other things, like, 'What if I had not been there? Oh, I'm so glad I was there,' and a lot of other things that made it much easier for us."

"I tried to express something of how we felt. I said, 'Oh, Mrs. Kennedy, you know we never even wanted to be vice president and now, dear God, it's come to this.'"

STATE'S BEAR SEASON OPENS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Game Commission says the one-week bear season got off to a good start despite cold temperatures and snow on the ground in some counties.

On opening day Monday 219 bears were reported killed, compared with 280 killed last year during the entire six-day season. The number of opening day hunters this year was down 10 per cent, the commission said.

Heaviest kills were reported in Cameron, Clinton, Elk, Forest and Pike counties where at least 20 bears were downed in each. A bearing weighing 500 pounds was reported killed in Clinton County.

The commission said William Askey of Linden R. D. 1 killed a bear that was destroying two beehives and that it may be the same bear that wrecked four hives of a neighbor the night before.

Glenn L. Bowers, deputy executive director of the commission, said "We were pleased to learn that only 16 cubs were killed in the entire state" on the first day. Shooting of cubs is illegal in Pennsylvania.

The bear season ends at 5 p.m. Saturday.

Held At Carlisle In Shooting Case

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — Paul Frederick Trayer, 48, of Carlisle, is being held in Cumberland County Prison on a charge of assault with intent to kill involving a shooting Monday.

Trayer is accused of firing a shotgun and hitting Ronald V. Knizer, 29, also of Carlisle, in the right shoulder, arm and back. Knizer is listed in satisfactory condition at Carlisle Hospital.

WOMAN WINS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Rep. Marian E. Markley, R-Lehigh, is the only Republican to win in Lehigh County in the Nov. 3 election.

Miss Markley polled 24,560 votes to 24,133 for her Democratic opponent, Ray A. Reinsmith, according to final returns, including absentee ballots tabulated Monday.

Court Refuses To Review Order

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Supreme Court has refused to review a U. S. District Court order directing officers of Teamsters Union Local 107 to reimburse the union for legal fees.

District Court Judge Ralph C. Body in Philadelphia had ordered some of the local's officers to repay $24,291 to the union treasury.

Raymond Cohen, former secretary-treasurer of the local, appealed Judge Body's ruling. The Supreme Court's refusal to review it Monday leaves it standing.

The order was issued under the Labor Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959.

Legal expenses were incurred in defense of local officers in cases pending in 1960 in state and federal courts in Pennsylvania.

HITS SCRANTON ROAD PROGRAM

HARRISBURG (AP) — Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse charged this past week-end that Gov. Scranton's highway building program is on the verge of "complete failure."

Morse's statement was prompted by the announcement that the Scranton administration had hired Park H. Martin, secretary of highways under the preceding Democratic Lawrence administration, as a dollar-a-year consultant.

"It is one of the great ironies of this administration that he (Scranton) has finally turned to the professional who spearheaded one of the nation's finest long-range highway planning programs in a desperate attempt to save it from complete failure," Morse said.

"It has been no secret among professional engineers and other concerned citizenry that highway planning and construction in Pennsylvania was being steadily weakened by the present administration," he added.

"Park Martin is the only man to get that highway financing, planning and building program back on the right road where Democratic administrations had put it in the first place."

Texas A&M hasn't been made the preseason title favorite in the Southwest Conference since 1942, and the Aggies finished fifth that year.

Some Passengers Choose Airline By Film It Lists

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Recently a Californian visiting New York called an airline to confirm his return reservation. "What's the movie?" he asked.

"We'll be showing 'Murder Ahoy,'" said the passenger agent.

"Oh," replied the traveler. He had seen "Murder Ahoy" on his flight to New York. So he called another airline and booked passage on a flight that was showing "I'd Rather Be Rich."

TWA WAS FIRST

The passenger was this reporter, and the experience introduced me to a new, high-flying form of entertainment that is becoming an important factor in the fortunes of two industries: movies and airlines.

TWA was first to introduce airborne movies, starting on transatlantic flights two and a half years ago. Later the service was extended to transcontinental flights, in both first-class and tourist.

Thomas McFadden, vice president in charge of marketing, considers the movies an important factor in TWA's climb out of the red and into sizable profits.

MOVIES OR MUSIC

Other airlines took notice. This year American Airlines began offering movies on cross-country flights — or stereophonic music for those preferring more relaxed entertainment.

Continental Airlines began its Golden Marquee movie service between Los Angeles and Chicago in August and then inaugurated films between Los Angeles and Houston.

MOST ARE PLEASED

A fortnight ago United Airlines started offering movies on all flights to Hawaii. Installations are now being made to extend the service to coast-to-coast planes after the first of the year.

Nearly everyone seems pleased with the new form of show business. The film companies are delighted with the word-of-mouth publicity created for movies by the opinion-setting air travelers, many of whom had lost the film-going habit.

Rentals of movies to airlines is also a growing source of revenue. It is estimated that production companies now earn $3 million a year from that source, with the figure likely to double next year.

STAYED FOR FINISH

Passengers generally seem enthusiastic. Movie: help while away the time on what could be a boring flight. A pilot swears this to be true: He once flew early to John F. Kennedy International Airport on a tailwind and his passengers refused to disembark until the movie was concluded.

One element seems displeased with airplane movies: Certain foreign airlines. At a recent meeting in Athens of the Inter-

FOUR BEDFORD CHURCHES JOIN TO SAVE MONEY

SCHELLSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Four congregations in this small southwestern Pennsylvania town have provided their own solution for a problem plaguing small congregations throughout the country. Schellsburg members of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., the Lutheran Church in America, the Methodist Church and the United Church of Christ have merged into one church — the United Church of Schellsburg.

A service of organization formalizing the union was conducted Sunday in this Bedford County community.

Economy was behind the merger, believed to be the first in United States religious history.

The new congregation is affiliated with the United Church of Christ. The Rev. Daniel Kratz is pastor.

This mountain community has 288 residents and nearly all are members of the new church.

It all began in 1945 when the Methodist Church in Schellsburg was destroyed by fire. Instead of rebuilding, the Methodists rented the Presbyterians' church.

Then in 1961 denominational leaders met to discuss a possible merger. At another meeting in 1963, a trial merger for two years was suggested.

The trial proved so successful that the congregations asked for a vote on merger before the two-year period ended.

The vote last October 4 was 101-25 in favor of merging.

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The price on Martin Bormann's head is $25,000.

West German authorities have promised that reward for information leading to the arrest of Bormann, one of Adolf Hitler's top lieutenants during the Nazi regime.

Bormann disappeared at the end of World War II. He subsequently was sentenced to death in absentia by the Nuremberg war crimes tribunal.

There have been recurrent rumors that he is alive, hiding out in exile, possibly South America.

ROME (AP) — Italians voted for the second and final day Monday in nationwide local elections that could bear on the future of Premier Aldo Moro's harassed government.

national Air Transport Association, a proposal was made to ban entertainment on transatlantic flights.

Next: The battle of the systems.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you live to be 70, your one-pound heart will have chalked up a lifetime job equivalent to carrying a 10-ton load 10 miles.

That was the illustration given Sunday by one of the nation's top heart specialists in describing the "fantastic amount of work" done by the human heart — and the difficulties in trying to develop an artificial, robot heart to duplicate it, even temporarily.

Dr. E. Cowles Andrus, professor emeritus of Johns Hopkins University Medical School, told a news conference he believes a crude artificial heart could be developed in several years.

But he said a robot heart useful in treating cardiac disease shapes up as achievable only "in the more distant future."

Dr. Andrus is director of the second national conference on cardiovascular diseases which opened Sunday under the joint sponsorship of the American Heart Association and agencies of the U.S. Public Health Service.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service says the amount of radioactive strontium 90 detected in milk continued to decline in August.

The August national average was 22 picocuries per liter of milk daily, compared with 26 in July and 30 in May and June. A picocurie is one millionth of one millionth of the radioactivity from one gram of radium. The Federal Radiation Council has established an intake of 200 picocuries a day, averaged over a year, as an acceptable health hazard.

A spokesman for the health service said the strontium 90 fallout effect of Communist China's nuclear test would not be detected in monthly milk reports for several months.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., says the proposed multilateral nuclear force of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization "is a reversal of the trend toward peace and arms reduction set in motion by the nuclear test ban treaty in 1963."

More than 625 tons of trout are placed in Colorado lakes and streams each year.

UNION FIGHTS PLAN TO CLOSE OLMSTED AFB

MIDDLETOWN, Pa. (AP) — The fight to prevent the shutdown of Olmsted Air Force Base in Middletown took on a new dimension Sunday.

Union leaders announced that they have scheduled a mass protest motorcade to Washington, D.C., to demonstrate the size and tenor of local sentiment against the ordered closing of the huge facility.

Edward W. B. Blandy, president of Olmsted's Local 1278, National Federation of Federal Employees, estimated that between 3,000 and 5,000 cars would participate.

Blandy said his union represents "hundreds" of the better than 10,000 civilian employees at the military base, which specializes in supply and maintenance service for aircraft equipment.

Olmsted was marked by Defense Secretary Robert A. McNamara last week to be closed down within five years in part of his proclaimed economy program to eliminate nonessential defense facilities.

$70 MILLION BASE

The base, one of the largest tabbed for closure, pours almost $70 million annually into the economy of the Central Pennsylvania area, according to local estimates.

McNamara's announcement met with immediate and vehement opposition locally and an SOS-Save Olmsted Services-committee was set up to counter the order in any way possible.

The union call for the motorcade was the latest maneuver in the combat.

Meanwhile, Blandy joined with Thomas W. Essig, president of Local 1800, American Federation of Government Employees, in charging that the decision to close the base was based on a "tragic pattern of misinformation."

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
TIPS ON COMB-OUTS. Many a careful set hair-do is ruined in the comb-out. It ends up looking either too stiff or altogether loses its line.

The technique that gives a groomed, yet soft and natural finish is not difficult to master. It can be resolved with a few do's and don'ts:

DO let the hair dry evenly and thoroughly before taking it down. DON'T let curlers or pins remain in the hair after it is dry. DO remove curlers carefully. DON'T use a comb to arrange the hair. DO use a clean, firm hairbrush.

DON'T fail to brush the entire head—separate and polish every strand—before starting the arrangement. DO begin to dress your style at the top—the crown and sides. DON'T work on the ends until the top is perfect and, if necessary, held in place with pins or clips.

Do brush curls over the back of the head; place hand under a curl to turn it down, over a curl to turn it up. DON'T brush wispy ends and bangs without supporting them with a finger.

DO "lock" the finished style by lightly pressing the top, back and sides with the hands. DON'T wet the hair with spray, just mist it. DO check for escaping wisps and tuck them in place before the spray dries.

DO—and your tresses will look more like a glorious gift of nature. As another boon, expect your sets last longer.

RULE YOUR WAVES

What's your hair problem? You'll find a way to overcome it in my 16-page booklet, RULE YOUR WAVES. Advice includes: Beauty treatments for oily, dry and normal hair; ways to manage unruly locks; how to add color and highlights; tips on cutting, permanents and styling; grooming tricks. GIVES NAACP VIEWS ON FBI

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—A leader of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says that Negroes feel the FBI, as an arm of the government, should protect their rights.

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the association, said that if the FBI is not going to protect Negro rights, "it should say so and the Negro should look elsewhere."

Wilkins, at a news conference, said "The Negro is in no mood to draw fine lines of distinction."

Asked to comment on the controversy between the Rev. Martin Luther King and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, Wilkins said that Hoover is "resentful over the fact that the public did not seem to realize the role of the FBI 'in the enforcement of civil rights in Georgia.'"

Wilkins was here to address the 40th anniversary of the Media chapter of the NAACP.

rejected suggestions they should engage in the disarmament conference at Geneva or meet with the four other nations which possess nuclear weapons — the United States, Soviet Union, Britain and France.

Peking also spurned proposals to destroy vehicles for the delivery of nuclear warheads and for a treaty banning all nuclear weapon tests.

FIGHT TO BUILD SOUTHERN GOP MEETS DEFEAT

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — After four years of strenuous effort to build a two-party system in the South, Republicans saw their strength at the state level decline in President Johnson's landslide victory.

"Operation Dixie," heavily financed by the Republican National Committee, was geared to establishing local GOP organizations capable of electing state officers and members of Congress as well as contributing electoral votes to Republican presidential candidates.

LOST LOCALLY

Although Sen. Barry Goldwater carried five Southern states and the GOP scored a net gain of four Southern House seats, Republicans lost ground at the local level where they were trying to broaden their base for the future.

A survey of 13 Southern and border states showed that in the Nov. 3 voting, Republicans lost a net of 31 seats in state Houses of Representatives. In the turnover they won 10 and lost 41 they previously held.

In state Senate races, they lost four seats and gained four, leaving them just where they were.

The states covered in figures compiled by the Senate Republican Policy Committee's staff as part of its breakdown of election returns included Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

GOP COUNT

Counting present lineups in and Virginia, which held no legislative elections this year, Republicans now hold less than 1 per cent of the House seats and slightly more than 8 per cent of Senate places in the various states.

The lower houses have 1,461 Democrats and only 117 Republicans. The count in state Senates is 457 Democrats, 40 Republicans.

In Mississippi, Georgia and South Carolina, all of which Goldwater carried, Republicans gained five state House seats and two Senate places.

Oddly enough in Tennessee, which Johnson carried, the GOP picked up four House and two Senate seats.

The Republicans suffered their greatest losses in the border state of West Virginia where Johnson racked up a 2-1 margin in the presidential race. There they dropped 15 House and three Senate seats.

SNOWSTORM STRIKES ERIE

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Residents of Erie and surrounding communities were digging out today as an aftermath to a weekend storm which dumped approximately 18 to 20 inches of snow.

The storm, whipped off Lake Erie by heavy squalls, struck late Friday night. The snow stopped falling Sunday night.

The weather bureau forecast rising temperatures and clear weather.

Erie public schools and some parochial schools were closed today.

The airport was closed Saturday night and all day Sunday and city buses didn't run during the period.

ROADS HAZARDOUS

Roads were open but hazardous in spots, said police who reported a rash of minor skidding accidents.

Police blamed the weather for one traffic fatality. Mrs. Josephine W. Williams, 70, of Meadville was killed Saturday in the crash of a car on an icy street in Cambridge Springs. Three other occupants of the auto were hurt.

Snow flurries fell in other sections of western Pennsylvania over the weekend frigid temperatures were recorded throughout the state.

The hands of convict labor from Dartmoor Prison hewed and dressed the 2,500 tons of granite that face the Scotland Yard building up to the second story.

WILSON DOWNS UNITED FLEET PLAN OF NATO

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson appears to have dealt a severe—if not fatal—blow to the proposed mixed nuclear fleet of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization by declaring Britain opposes the project.

Wilson told the House of Commons Monday his Labor government believes "a mixed manned surface fleet adds nothing to Western strength, is likely to cause dissipation of strength in the alliance and may add to the difficulties of East-West agreement."

On the surface, his statement puts London in stern opposition to Washington's plan at the very moment when it seemed to officials here that the new British government's interest in the fleet had given fresh cause for hope that, perhaps after some modification, it might be acceptable to a number of NATO allies.

U. S. SUPERVISED

U.S. officials were surprised at the flatness of Wilson's declaration, but there was some tendency to regard it as the opening move in a series of negotiations.

Wilson said he hopes to obtain in discussions with President Johnson here next month more extensive "consultation in the deployment and sharing of NATO's nuclear strength."

At the same time he declared, "We are irrevocably committed against more fingers on the (nuclear) trigger." London's aim, said Wilson, is to have the United States serve as the custodian of Western nuclear power.

The position Wilson outlined appears to leave little room for maneuver in an effort to reach accommodation with the strong positions already taken by the United States and West Germany in favor of the proposed 25-ship fleet. Armed with Polaris nuclear missiles, it would be jointly controlled by participating nations and they would share the cost and provide the personnel for the vessels.

NO PUBLIC REACTION

Wilson's statement came as Secretary of State Dean Rusk and West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder were starting two days of consultation on U.S.-German and NATO problems, centering around the multilateral force — MLF — plan.

Neither the State Department nor Schröder reacted publicly to what Wilson said.

Privately U.S. officials said that on this issue Wilson's stated position is close to that of French President Charles de Gaulle. Paris' position is that the West Germans must choose between closer ties with France and closer ties with the United States on MLF.

Italy's armed forces total about 367,000 men.

State Missionary Safe In Congo

MARION TWP. Pa. (AP)—Clifford Schaub, identified by the U.S. State Department as one of those rescued today from the besieged Congo city of Stanleyville, is a native of the Beaver County hamlet.

The State Department said Schaub was rescued with his wife and two children. Schaub was a missionary working for the Africa Christian Mission of Cincinnati, Ohio. He had been in the Congo about eight years.

His sister, Mrs. Kenneth Blinn, lives in Marion Twp. "Thank God. We're very happy," she said when told her brother and his family were safe.

CONRAD PLANS 142ND FLIGHT OVER ATLANTIC

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Max Conrad, at 62 a handsome old man of the skies, swore "never again" after his first flight across the Atlantic in 1950 but he now is planning his 142nd ocean crossing.

The flying grandfather, a Winona, Minn., native now living in Prescott, Ariz., addressed a women's club Monday.

"Out on the ocean all by yourself you get terribly honest," said the veteran light plane pilot. "You see stars up above and you can almost touch them, it seems. You realize they didn't get there themselves."

On that first flight across the Atlantic in 1950, he recalled, ice formed on the plane and the communications system went out. The aircraft, which normally cruised at about 100 miles per hour, slowed to 60, almost to the stalling point. Conrad started thinking of his wife and their children.

"I had started lowering, getting more and more ice, when I saw a hole in this cloud," he said. "I let the plane down through it and suddenly—under the clouds there was warm air and the ice peeled off."

"Afterward I crossed my heart: there would never, never be another Atlantic crossing." But Conrad continued solo flights across the Atlantic, over the Pacific, and around the world. He said he flies because he gets paid to ferry planes, because he promotes an aircraft company, and because he loves to fly.

Conrad passes much of his time aloft by playing the harmonica and writing poems and music.

TEACHER ACTS ON BROADWAY IN SPARE TIME

NEW YORK (AP)—Dede Thomas doesn't see what's so unusual about being a schoolteacher by day and a Broadway chorus girl by night.

The red-haired Dayton, Ohio, lass, 26, who appears in "What Makes Sammy Run?" spends two or three days a week doing substitute teaching at Manhattan's Junior High School 79.

"I don't think this is really extraordinary if you look at the number of hours in the day," she says.

"I'm at the theater only three and a half hours in the evening and I get home about 11:45. It's not as if I worked in a cocktail lounge until four in the morning. I usually get up at 6:45 a.m. and that leaves a full day ahead."

She says that her husband, Jimmy Campbell, wasn't very enthusiastic about the idea. "But," she explains, "I said to him, 'Jim, I have all this time—what am I going to do with it?' and he agreed."

Their schedules almost coincide. He plays in the orchestra of the Broadway hit, "Hello, Dolly!" in the evening and attends rehearsals and acting classes during the day.

When Dede was a dance major at Ohio State University, she carried a full study load and danced every night. "I guess that's where I got into the swing," she says.

After working as a secretary in New York for a short time, she got a teaching license and taught physical education and hygiene. Then she joined the chorus of "Bye Bye Birdie."

Being on tour with the show didn't put a stop to her teaching. "We had seven kids in the show," Dede explains, "and they needed a tutor, so I volunteered. When 'Birdie' closed, I came back to New York. There wasn't much happening on Broadway, so I took another job teaching."

Seeks New Trial On FBI Report

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—E. Newbold Smith, arguing for a new trial on his conviction of beating a suburban police chief, told the State Supreme Court on Monday the FBI will now release statements of two witnesses.

Smith, who won a reargument of his case by the U. S. Supreme Court, argued the statements of the witnesses, two women, will show discrepancies when compared with their court testimony.

In August, 1963, Smith was fined $1,000 and ordered jailed for 30 days on his conviction of beating Chief Frank Elliott of Thornbury Township, Chester County. The beating followed an argument over an alleged traffic violation. Smith is a stock broker and was a well known athlete at the U. S. Naval Academy.

Two women testified they saw Smith strike the first blow. It's their statements to the FBI that Smith wants considered. The State Superior and Supreme Courts upheld Smith's conviction, but the U. S. Supreme Court ordered the re-hearing.

ALL-COACHES TEAM NAMED

NEW YORK (AP)—Dick Butkus of Illinois, Gale Sayers of Kansas and Rick Redman of Washington are repeaters on the American Football Coaches Association All-Star team.

Butkus, the Illinois center and linebacker, Jayhawk halfback Sayers and Redman, a standout guard for the Huskies, were first-team selections last year.

This year's first team, selected by 512 coaches and released Monday by TV Guide magazine, includes two quarterbacks, Bob Berry of Oregon and Craig Morton of California.

Oregon's Len Casanova, president of the association, said the coaches decided Berry and Morton should share the position because the voting was so close.

Other first-team nominees were ends Jack Snow, Notre Dame, and Larry Elkins, Baylor; tackles Larry Kramer, Nebraska, and Ralph Neely, Oklahoma; guard Glen Ressler, Penn State; halfback Larry Dupree, Florida, and fullback Tom Nowatzke, Indiana.

New Honor For Mel Stottlemire

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Mel Stottlemire, the young right-hander who moved up from Richmond and helped lead the New York Yankees to a pennant, won the International League's earned-run title last season, official averages showed today.

Stottlemire compiled a 1.42 ERA in 30 games before being called up by the Yankees early in August.

Bruce Brubaker of the Syracuse Chiefs was second with 2.63.

Phils Sell Gibson To Chisox In Deal

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Right-handed pitcher Joel Gibson was sold today by the Philadelphia Phillies to the Chicago White Sox to complete a deal on Oct. 15 in which the Phillies received pitcher Rudy May.

The 25-year-old Gibson pitched last year at the Phillies' Arkansas farm club and had a 10-7 record with an earned run average of 3.72. He was on the disabled list during 1963 after suffering a broken arm in an automobile accident in Puerto Rico while playing winter ball.

In the May deal, the White Sox also received catcher Bill Heath from the Phillies' Arkansas farm club.

The 1948 SMU team was penalized only 197 yards, lowest total in Southwest Conference history.

BLIND GOLFER GIVEN HONOR

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—"This is one of the nicest things that ever happened to me," was blind golfer Charley Boswell's reaction to being named to Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary All-America.

"I'm thrilled to death," the Birmingham insurance executive said.

The Silver Anniversary squad is comprised of former college football players who have made outstanding contributions in life during the 25 years after graduation.

Boswell played on the 1937, 1938 and 1939 University of Alabama football teams. He was blinded by a German shell in saving a fellow soldier in the Battle of the Bulge.

After losing his sight Boswell concentrated on golf. He became an 80 shooter, winning the International Blind Golfers Championship seven times and the national title 13 times.

NAMED MANAGER

NEW YORK (AP)—Warren (Sheriff) Robinson, 43, a bullpen coach the last two years with the New York Mets was named manager of their Buffalo, N.Y., farm club in the International League Monday. He succeeds George (Whitey) Kurowski.

Mrs. JFK's Testimony To Warren Unit Is Revealed

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the anguished aftermath of the assassination, President John F. Kennedy's young widow was deeply troubled for a time by a thought that she might have saved him.

It occurred to her that, if she had happened to be looking at her husband when the assassin opened fire, she might have been able to pull him down out of the path of the fatal bullet. He was hit twice, the second bullet taking his life.

Evidently she finally reached the conclusion that this might have been could not really have happened, because in telling the Warren Commission about it she employed the past tense "I used to think."

TESTIFIED IN JUNE

Mrs. Kennedy gave her testimony June 5 at what was then her Georgetown home to Chief Justice Earl Warren and the counsel of the Warren Commission, J. Lee Rankin. The then Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy was present.

The testimony was included in the volume of evidence on which the Warren Commission made its report Sept. 27. Some of these volumes have just become available to The Associated Press.

While several witnesses have spoken of Mrs. Kennedy's remarkable self-control during the tragic Nov. 22 in Dallas, her testimony disclosed how deeply she was shocked. She said, for example, she has no recollection of crawling toward the back of the presidential automobile, as pictures show her doing.

RECALLS COMMENTS

Essential portions of Mrs. Kennedy's statement, after she described the beginning of the motorcade in Dallas:

Mrs. Kennedy: "Mrs. Connally, wife of Gov. John B. Connally of Texas," said, "We will soon be there." We could see a tunnel in front of us. Everything was really slow then. And I remembered thinking it would be so cool under that tunnel."

The car moved toward the overpass.

"That is when she (Mrs. Connally) said to President Kennedy, 'You certainly can't say that the people of Dallas haven't given you a nice welcome.'"

DIDN'T SEEM DIFFERENT

"I think he said — I don't know if I remember it or if I have read it — 'No, you certainly can't,' or something. And you know then the car was very slow and there weren't very many people around."

"You know, there is always noise in a motorcade and there are always motorcycles beside us, a lot of them backfiring. So I was looking to the left. I guess there was a noise, but it didn't seem like any different noise really because there is so much noise, motorcycles and things."

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

But then suddenly Gov. Connally was yelling, 'Oh, no, no, no!' Rankin: "Did he turn toward you?"

PIECE OF SKULL

Mrs. Kennedy: "No; I was looking this way, to the left, and I heard these terrible noises, you know. And my husband never made any sound. So I turned to the right and all I remember is seeing my husband, he had this sort of quizzical look on his face, and his hand was up, it must have been his left hand. And just as I turned and looked at him, I could see a piece of his skull and I remember it was flesh colored. I remember thinking he just looked as if he had a slight headache, and I just remember seeing that. No blood or anything."

FELL IN MY LAP

"And then he sort of did this (indicating), put his hand to his forehead and fell in my lap."

"And then I just remember falling on him and saying, 'Oh, no, no, no!' I mean, 'Oh my God, they have shot my husband.' And 'I love you, Jack.' I remember I was shouting. And just being down in the car with his head in my lap. And it just seemed an eternity."

"You know, there were pictures later on of me climbing out the back. But I don't remember that at all."

Rankin: "Do you remember Mr. Hill (Secret Service agent Clinton J. Hill) coming to try to help you on the car?"

WORDS DELETED

Mrs. Kennedy: "I don't remember anything. I was just down like that."

"And finally I remember a voice behind me, or something, and then I remember the people in the front seat, or somebody, finally knew something was wrong, and a voice yelling, which must have been Mr. Hill, 'Get to the hospital!' or maybe it was Mr. Kellerman (Roy H. Kellerman, Secret Service agent who was riding next to the driver), in the front seat. But someone yelling, I was just down and holding him."

At this point in the transcript appear the words "reference to wounds deleted." This is one of the very few omissions noted in the transcript.

ASKED ABOUT SHOTS

Rankin: "Do you have any recollection of whether there were one or more shots?"

Mrs. Kennedy: "Well, there must have been two because the one that made me turn around was Gov. Connally yelling. And it used to confuse me because first I remembered there were three and I used to think my husband didn't make any sound when he was shot. And Gov. Connally screamed."

"And then I read the other day that it was the same shot that hit them both. But I used to think if I only had been looking to the right I would have seen the first shot hit him, then I could have pulled him down and then the second shot would not have hit him."

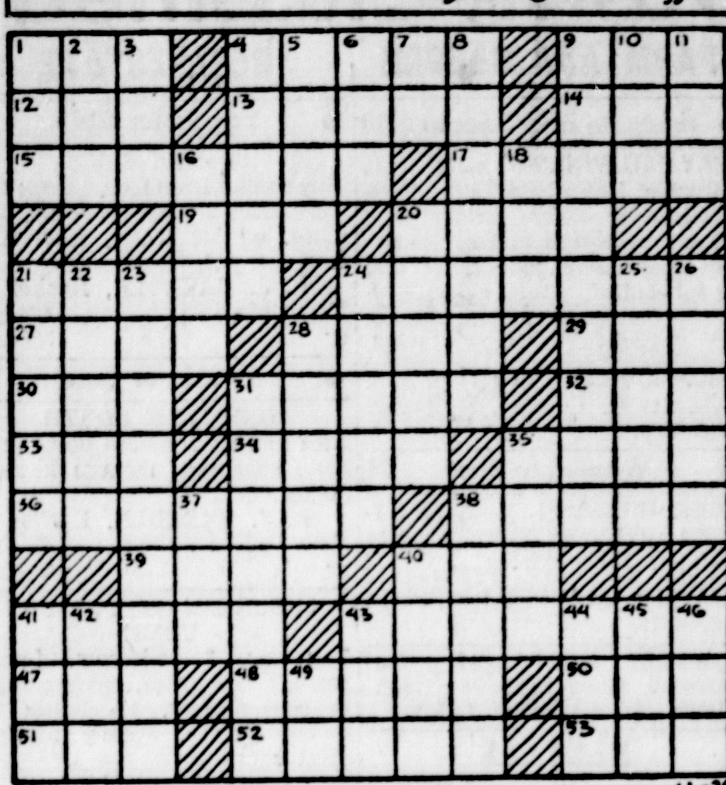

"But I heard Gov. Connally yelling and that made me turn around, and as I turned to the right my husband was doing this (indicating with hand at neck). He was receiving a bullet. And those are the only two I remember."

SCIENTISTS LOCATE RUINS OF GREEK CITY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A team of archeologists from the University of Pennsylvania, employing instruments originally intended for use in outer space, believes it has found the ruins of the ancient Greek city of Sybaris.

Dr. Froelich G. Rainey, director of Penn's Museum, said over the weekend that researchers have detected structures beneath the Drati Plain in Southern Italy that may be the buildings and roads of the fabled city.

Sybaris was reputed to be the wealthiest city of the ancient Greek world with a love of luxury that gave the word "sybarite" to the English language. "This is one of the most exciting developments in archeology in many years," said Dr. Rainey, who has headed the expedition that spent three years trying to find the ancient city.

He said the team used an instrument known as the rubidium magnetometer in searching for the ruins. The instrument detects slight changes in the earth's magnetic field and can be used to probe greater depths than ever before by archeologists.

Gecko Lizard Is Noisiest In Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — For its size, the aggressive little gecko lizard is the noisiest inhabitant of the Namib desert in South-West Africa.

W. D. Haacke, a zoologist of the Transvaal Museum in Pretoria, who visited the Namib recently, said gecko lizards "clicked" at night by opening and closing their mouths—"just like barking dogs."

Haacke, with Dr. Charles Koch of the Namib Desert Research Station, found a new species of gecko, called Ptenopus kochi, which he claimed was the noisiest of the nisy lizards. "He has a range of 11 'clicks' in his call and clicks very quickly," he said.

Why do geckos click at night? "It may be a love call or one proclaiming territorial ownership," said Haacke. "We don't know yet but there is somebody at the research station trying to find out right now just what makes geckos click."

Ham radio operators helped to track Russia's Sputnik I in 1957 when the United States' tracking system was still in its infancy.

He said the team used an instrument known as the rubidium magnetometer in searching for the ruins. The instrument detects slight changes in the earth's magnetic field and can be used to probe greater depths than ever before by archeologists.

Native Of Italy, Dam Builder, Dies

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Frank Veri, 81, who helped to build the hydroelectric dams on the Susquehanna River, died here Monday.

Cause of death was not given. Veri, who supervised construction of Holtwood, Safe Harbor and Conowingo Dams on the Susquehanna for the Pennsylvania Power and Water Co., also helped electrify the Pennsylvania Railroad's Main Line in the 1930s.

Veri was born in Italy and immigrated to Quebec, Canada in 1898. There he worked on other pioneer water projects before he came here.

His widow, a daughter, and a brother and four grandchildren survive.
